

How dare you even CONSIDER revising the do not call list?? These people invade my home, my privacy and abuse a service that I am paying for. At this point, most of them are calling from outside the United States and barely speak English.